20th Annual Invitational Golf Tournament

"Mark Twain once called golf, 'A good walk spoiled'".

Twain's jibe at golf as a pastime accurately reflects the love/hate relationship many golfers have with the sport. It's not just golfers, however, who have mixed feelings about golf. Charity golf tournaments often inspire the same confused emotions among the volunteers and organizers who host them. Yet, despite the hard work, the headaches and the risk, the charity golf tournament remains one of the nonprofit world's most popular special event fund-raisers.

Thus: Morning Star Outreach

Our Purpose and Goals

Morning Star Outreach is a 501(C)(3) non-profit Christian organization established in 1978 by concerned business and professional people who saw the need to reach a special segment of our society. Historically, junior-high youth from the inner-cities are born into cycles of abuse, neglect and poverty. Through a variety of programs offered at no cost, these young people are reached, helped and shown that there is a way out and that they do indeed have a future and a hope. God has a plan for each of their lives and His plan will be revealed to them through Jesus Christ.

Discipleship

On behalf of our golf committee, I am inviting you to participate in our May 9th, 2011 Morning Star Outreach Golf Tournament, to be held at the well-manicured Crow Canyon Country Club in Danville, California.

This event is very important as it funds a good part of our annual budget. There are many needs this year and our goal is to fund our camps and youth program. We need to raise $50,000 to accomplish this goal. This can be realized by fielding 128 golfers, and enlisting several sponsors in addition to a raffle and auction. The sponsorship levels this year are listed below.

For a hole-in-one prize this year, we have a cash prize of $25,000. Also, you can win $5,000 in our putting contest.

We appreciate the opportunity to share Morning Star Outreach and our goals with you. I would greatly appreciate it if you would consider helping us meet the challenge at hand.

If you would like more information regarding Morning Star Outreach, please give me a call: Denise Schaefer at (510) 886-8558 or e-mail me at mstarcamp@aol.com.
